We would like you to consider joining us in supporting a classical music series for the Tennessee Valley region of north Alabama. To be in the presence of an inspired performer revealing the beauty of their instrument is something that our children need to experience as they grow in our community. One of the driving forces of establng Music at Messiah in 2013 was to meet this need.

Thank you to our past Music at Messiah Classical Concert Series sponsors we will be announcing revised series sponsorships soon.
